Remulla: People need a balance between health and livelihood

"Now is the time for leaders and NOT politicians," said Governor Jonvic Remulla on Thursday as he expressed his sentiments on the rising toll of coronavirus disease (COVID-19) cases in the country. The national government has announced recently that Philippines can no longer implement another strict quarantine restriction as the nation needs to revive its economy.

Despite the decision of the Palace regarding the quarantine status amid rising cases of the deadly virus, Remulla emphasized the need to

LGU Imus pumps up support for New Normal set up in education

IMUS CITY, Cavite -- The local government here thru the Department of Education-Imus have been preparing for the School Year 2020-2021 which opens August 24, 2020 with the New Normal setting.

In a video presentation of the Schools Division Office Imus City Eskwela Serye episode 1: Ang Edukasyon sa "New Normal," Schools Division Superintendent Dr. Rosemarie D. Torres CESO-V June 1, 2020 clarified the main issues and concerns raised by parents with regards to the education of their children amid the COVID-19 pandemic

The three modes of learning were discussed namely online or modular, blended, and home schooling which are all supported and endorsed by the Department of Education.

With the face-to-face classroom set up not allowed due to the threat of the COVID-19 pandemic, teacher-rider members of the DepEd Imus City Eagle Riders (DICER) will bring the learning modules to the houses of all students to ensure they have the materials needed for their lessons.

Meanwhile, the LGU Imus distributed 2,500 radios with flash drive to assist teachers in their review of recorded lessons.

In addition, the city government is also currently planning to establish and accelerate internet connection in every school and barangays to help give better internet access to students and teachers for their learning. "With our cooperation and unity, we can do everything," Mayor Emmanuel Maliksi said. (PIA)

GABAY AT BUHAY

Bishop ERIC SANTOS

Naghaharing takot sa Puso

Isang mapagpalang araw sa mga walang sawang tumutunghay sa dyaryong ito at patuloy na nag-aasam na muling matunghayan ng column na ito.

Samo't saring usapin ang pinag-uusapan ngayon, nariyan ang pagpapasara sa isang istasyon ng telebisyon, pagsasabatas ng isang batas kontra terorismo at syempre ang walang kamatayang usapin sa COVID-19 pandemic. Ilan lang ito sa mga nais nating bigyan ng paggabay upang sa munting paraan ng inyong lingkod ay magkaroon ng kasiglahan ang ating mga buhay na balot ng takot at pangamba.

Hati ang opinyon ng bawat isa tungkol sa pagpapasara ng NTC sa ABS-CBN. May mga nagsasabing tama lang ito at walang naka-aangat sa batas, at syempre may mga nagsasabing hindi ito patas at matuwid, lalong higit sa mga maaaring mawalan ng trabaho sa panahong ito na marami ang nakakaranas ng kahirapan. Para sa aking sariling opinyon, masakit nga naman sa mga nawawalan ng trabaho, ngunit kung hindi ipapatupad ang batas ay maaaring abusuhin ito, at marahil may political will lang ang gobyerno ngayon. "...Sabi nga ng kasabihan, sa may gustong magkatrabaho, may paraan... ngunit sa ayaw maraming dahilan." Marahil ipagkatiwala na lang natin ang lahat sa mambabatas ang patungkol sa kahihinatnan ng lahat.

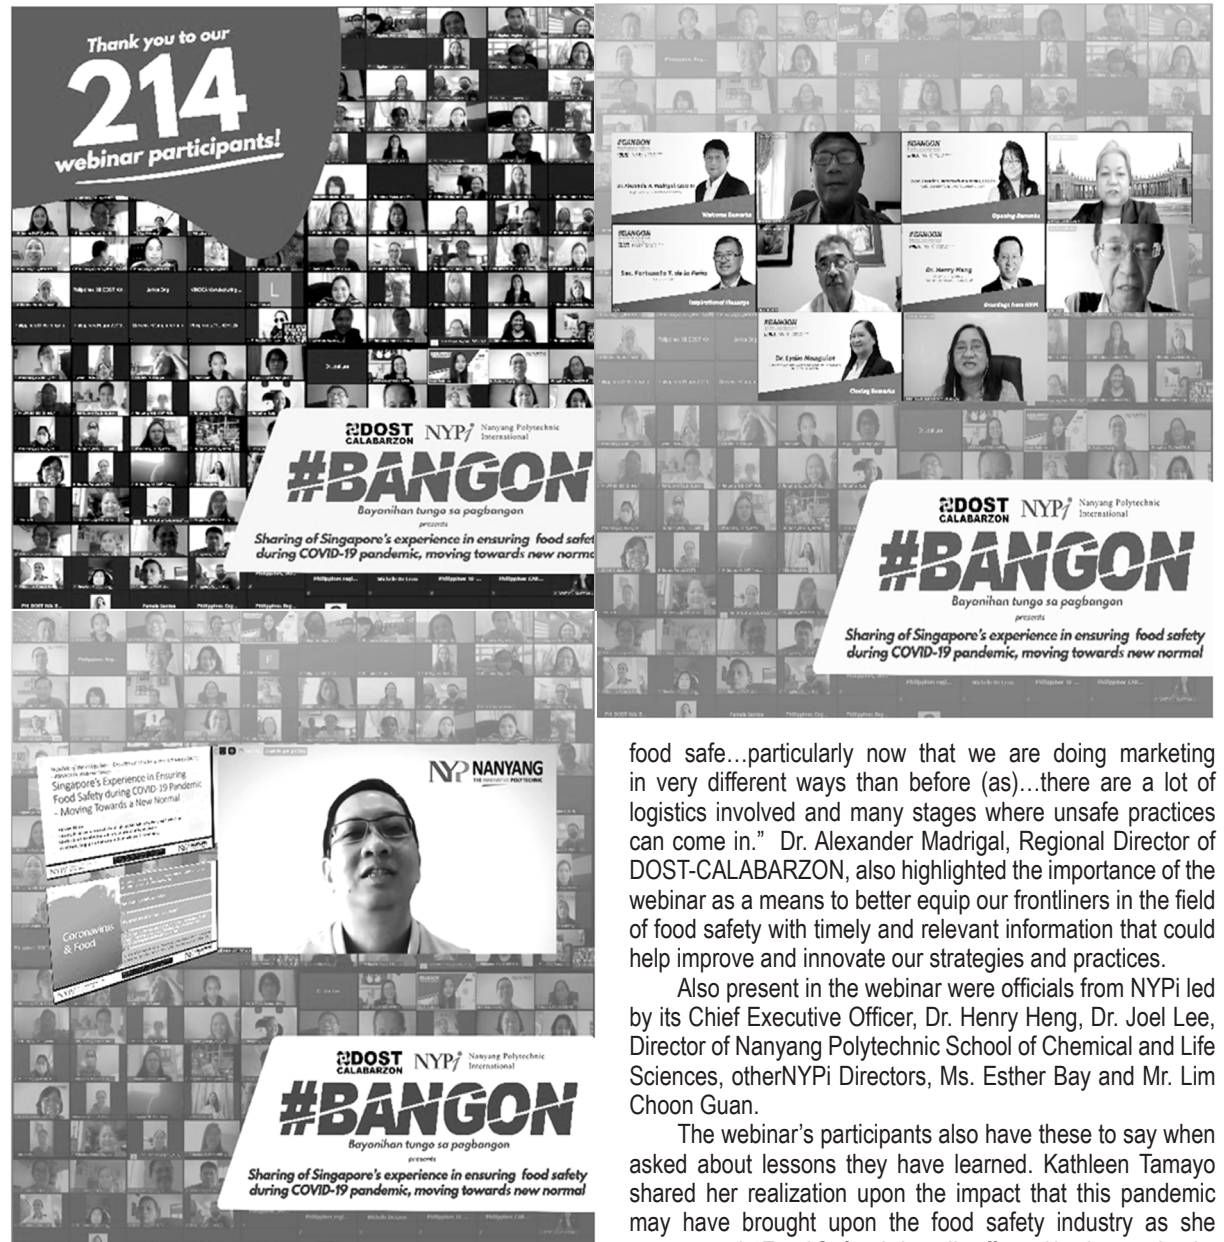

Kamakailan na nilagdaan na ng ating Pangulo Rodrigo Duterte ang pagsasabatas ng anti-terror bill. Ngunit may ilang makakaliwa ang pawang natatakot sa batas na ito? Anu ba sila terorismo ba sila? ito ang tanong ng nakararami. Ngunit ayon lang naman sa aking sariling opinyon, isinabatas ang anti-terror bill ay upang pangalagaan lamang ang bansa sa banta ng terorismo na siyang gumugulo sa ating gobyerno.

Anu pa ba ang gagawin ng pamahalaan upang pangalagaan ang bansa sa lumaganap na sakit ng COVID? At ngayon, kung dadako tayo sa lansangan ay masasabi natin na "par-tang normal na!" sa kabila ng banta na hindi pa ligtas. Tama man o hindi ang ginagawa ng marami, kalakip ng pag-iingat na ginagawa natin, mas higit nating paigtingin ang pananalangin at pananampalataya sa Diyos. Masakip mang unawain na hindi tayo handa noong sumapit tayo sa pandemyang ito, ngunit tunay na wala tayong kakapitan sa panahong ito kundi ang Diyos.

Tandaan natin nasa bawat pangyayari sa buhay natin ay may dahilan ang Diyos kung bakit kailangan maganap ang lahat ng ito. Kung anuman ang dahilan ng Diyos at sa ngayon hindi natin ito maarok, ang masasabi ko lang, mahal tayo ng Diyos at ayaw niya tayong malublob sa kapahamakan ng buhay.

Nawa'y muli akong nakapagbigay ng GABAY sa inyong mga BUHAY, at sa yugtong ito kapit lang tayo sa Diyos na siyang totoong GABAY AT BUHAY!

#BANGON features Singapore's COVID-19 food safety experience

Bayanihan recently conquered the international scene. Last June 26, 2020, the Department of Science and Technology-CALABARZON in partnership with Singapore's Nanyang Polytechnic International (NYPi) produced #BANGON's 6th webinar episode entitled, "Sharing of Singapore's experience in ensuring food safety during COVID-19 pandemic, moving towards a new normal". A total of 214 food safety trainers and MSMEs were better equipped with timely and relevant information through an interactive and insightful sharing of experiences and best practices in the field of food safety and technology led by Mr. Richard Khaw, Deputy Director of Nanyang Polytechnic School of Chemical and Life Sciences.

Mr. Khaw in his discussion proved that experience is indeed the best teacher as he shared the temporary and new measures of food safety in his country. He also shared specific best practices of industries in Singapore and highlighted the impact and different challenges to food regulators in this COVID-19 pandemic 'season'.

Usec. Brenda Nazareth-Manzano, DOST Undersecretary for Regional Operations, in her opening remarks stated that unsafe food is detrimental to the economy. "When food is not safe, children cannot learn, adults cannot work, and humans cannot function." She then went on to emphasize that this is precisely the reason why DOST puts premium on the country's food safety needs. Secretary Fortunato T. de la Peña in his inspirational message seconded this by stating that 60% of the MSMEs that DOST has been assisting are under the food sector specifically under food processing. He then went on to note the importance of food safety especially during these times. "We need all the knowledge for keeping food safe...particularly now that we are doing marketing in very different ways than before (as)...there are a lot of logistics involved and many stages where unsafe practices can come in." Dr. Alexander Madrigal, Regional Director of DOST-CALABARZON, also highlighted the importance of the webinar as a means to better equip our frontliners in the field of food safety with timely and relevant information that could help improve and innovate our strategies and practices.

Also present in the webinar were officials from NYPi led by its Chief Executive Officer, Dr. Henry Heng, Dr. Joel Lee, Director of Nanyang Polytechnic School of Chemical and Life Sciences, other NYPi Directors, Ms. Esther Bay and Mr. Lim Choon Guan.

The webinar's participants also have these to say when asked about lessons they have learned. Kathleen Tamayo shared her realization upon the impact that this pandemic may have brought upon the food safety industry as she commented- "Food Safety is heavily affected by the pandemic. But keeping in mind protocols and putting it in place, in the context of food safety, will help us keep up in these times." Meanwhile, Elyss Billedo and Andrew de Los Angeles both agreed of the need to impose and tailor-fit regulations for food establishments. Billedo mentioned that: "There is a new normal in food safety as well. More stringent measures should be applied especially in food establishments. De Los Angeles also agreed on the need for measures but also highlighted the importance of a more flexible set of regulations as he said: "Certain flexibility in relaxing food safety regulations need not compromise safety by having counterpart random validation in the process."

DOST, NYPi, and Temasek Foundation have been institutional partners on food safety since 2016. Officials and staff of DOST together with other delegates from government agencies like Department of Health, Food and Drug Administration, Department of Agriculture-National Meat Inspection Service and National Food Authority- Food Development Center have been trained under the Food Safety and Technology Program. A total of 160 officials and staff completed the training. To date, DOST and NYPi's partnership continues to grow through collaboration and networking on food testing and analytical tools. A recent addition to the list is this #BANGON webinar where they shared their experiences and best practices.

#BANGON: Bayanihan tungo sa pagbangon is a free online seminar series produced by DOST-CALABARZON for DOST-assisted MSMEs. Now on its 6th offering, this seminar series hopes to inspire and encourage MSMEs to bounce back and continue their business journey in this new normal. (DOSTIVA PARCU)

torcycle's engineering balance. As a rider himself, Revilla said that balance is the single most crucial aspect in designing, engineering, and riding a motorcycle. "When you have a back rider, the weight has to be synchronized. As the rider weighs left, the backrider has to do the same or else there's a high chance of crashing. A divider between both riders will make this and balance very difficult as there will be no tactile feedback between them. That barrier will also impact aerodynamics greatly, also interfering will balance," Revilla said. He further added that aside from the high probability that the makeshift barrier may lead to more motorcycle crashes, in the event of a crash, they will also lead to greater injuries. As an alternative,

Revilla suggested that the NTF require riders and backriders to wear gloves, face masks, and full face helmets, or if not, face shields which will not interfere with the required dexterity and balance of riders. "After all, both riders live in the same house where they interact in the same space without masks, share utensils, and at the end of day, sleep on the same bed. The installation of a barrier on motorcycles for the purpose of protecting them from each other seems unnecessary," Revilla said. Interior Secretary Eduardo Ano announced July 9 that backride in motorcycles will be allowed for married couples, provided that the driver and the rider both wear face masks, and carry identification cards which can serve as proof that they live in the same house. A makeshift barrier with handle between the rider and the driver is also mandatory. (BRPR/MB)

then, but the vote takes it off the air permanently.

Only the House of Representatives, which is dominated by President Rodrigo Duterte's allies, can grant such franchises and the chance of any reversal of Friday's vote is extremely low, lawmakers said.

The network, which used to be viewed by millions of Filipinos on free TV, has been able to continue broadcasting some of its TV and radio news programs over paid cable channels, but with a small fraction of its former viewership.

"We are deeply hurt," ABS-CBN President and CEO Carlo Katigbak said, but he suggested the company will try to find other ways to return to business.

"Together with our employees and our audiences all over the world, we share in your sadness over this setback,"

Katigbak said. "We look forward to the day when we can again reunite."

In the network's newsroom, journalists hugged each other and wept. "We lost our voice," Irish Vidal, a news staffer, said in tears. Outside its headquarters, journalists and TV and movie celebrities lit candles and held protest placards.

Duterte and his allies had questioned the network's compliance with the law and the terms of its franchise, including its alleged use of a dummy corporation and large numbers of non-regular workers without employment security. The company denied any wrongdoing in a dozen televised House hearings.

International media watchdogs condemned the closure of ABS-CBN, which was founded in 1953, as a major blow to press freedom.

Watch said the lawmakers' vote was "a grievous assault on press freedom in the country" and the greatest blow to media freedom caused by any government act since late dictator Ferdinand Marcos shut the broadcasting giant and other media outlets after declaring martial law in 1972.

"This move solidifies the tyranny of President Rodrigo Duterte," said Phil Robertson, the deputy Asia director of the U.S.-based rights group.

Reflecting the extent of unease over the network's shutdown, both the opposition and several key Duterte allies questioned efforts to close it. Concerns have also been raised by a diverse range of groups, including top business executives, left-wing activists and Catholic Church officials.

ABS-CBN has more than 11,000 news and production personnel nationwide. Aside from reporting on the coronavirus, which has infected more than 50,000 people and killed 1,314 in the Philippines, it has provided food and medical aid to more than 2 million people, company officials said.

Watchdogs accuse Duterte and his government of muzzling independent media such as ABS-CBN that have reported critically on issues including his anti-drug crackdown, which has left thousands of mostly poor drug suspects dead. Duterte has accused the network of not airing his paid campaign ads and favoring a rival candidate in the 2016 election, allegations the company denied.

Other critical media, including leading newspaper the Philippine Daily Inquirer and Rappler, an online news site, have also come under attack from the president.

Presidential spokesman Harry Roque said Duterte took a neutral position on ABS-CBN's franchise renewal and left it to Congress to decide.

But ahead of the franchise expiration, the government's solicitor-general, Jose Calida, asked the Supreme Court in February to revoke the franchises of ABS-CBN and a subsidiary in a separate attempt to shut the company for allegedly abusing its franchises and violating a constitutional prohibition on foreign investment in Philippine media.

ABS-CBN denied the allegations. The high court eventually dismissed the petition.

PRESIDENT PROCLAIMS NEW ECOZONE FRONTIER IN BATANGAS

Batangas City adds the Philippines' first Knowledge, Innovation, Science and Technology (KIST) Park to its list of Special Economic Zones. Following the Presidential Proclamation No. 947, PEZA Director General Charito Plaza and Batangas State University President Dr. Tirso A. Ronquillo signed the registration agreement on June 2, 2020, opening the 27,254-square-meter BatStateU KIST Park for business locators.

Nestled at the heart of the city, locators will benefit from its high accessibility to thoroughfares and transport systems, with a 1.5hr-travel time from Metro Manila via STAR Tollway and is 9km away from the Batangas International Port. It is within range of neighboring technology centers, business hubs, and multinational companies in the CALABARZON Region, Philippines' second largest economy in terms of GDP. Overall, making BatStateU KIST Park the strategic choice for tech transfer and commercialization in the Philippines.

Having three operating Information Technology Centers under its belt, Batangas boasts of good governance and is a recipient of the USAID

Cities Development Initiative (CDI) Program for significantly reducing the time, steps, and costs of registering and renewing business licenses.

With its potential for nurturing success in the knowledge economy, BatStateU KIST Park as a new brand of ecozone is expected to promote dynamic collaboration among universities, industries, and government institutions to foster technological innovation and technopreneurship.

Enterprises who operate in the area can avail of simplified import-export procedures, income tax holidays, and many other fiscal and non-fiscal incentives. BatStateU KIST Park is set to virtually launch on July 17, 2020.

Batangas State University is a Level IV state university in the CALABARZON region, and the only SUC in the country accredited by the US Accrediting Board for Engineering and Technology (ABET) for its Engineering, and Information Technology programs. It is rated 3 stars in the Quacquarelli Symonds (QS) list of top universities. (Jecamarie Pasay/ML)
