the threshold of 270 Electoral College votes he needed to win the presidency.

"On behalf of the Filipino nation, President Rodrigo Roa Duterte wishes to extend his warm congratulations to former Vice President Joseph 'Joe' Biden on his election as the new President of the United States of America," he said in a statement.

He said Duterte was looking forward to working with the 46th President of the US.

"We look forward to working closely with the new administration of President-elect Biden anchored on mutual respect, mutual benefit, and shared commitment to democracy, freedom and the rule of law," he added.

Roque expressed confidence that "long-standing" bilateral relations between the Philippines and US would continue under Biden's term.

"The Philippines and the United States have long-standing bilateral relations and we are committed to further enhancing the relations with the United States under the Biden administration. Congratulations and we wish him all the best," he said.

On Wednesday,

Roque said he expects no major changes in bilateral relations between the Philippines and the US regardless of who wins the race for the White House.

"You see the (US) State Department ensures continuity as far as US foreign policy is concerned. So we don't expect any major changes in bilateral relations between the Philippines and the United States," Roque said in an interview over CNN Philippines' The Source.

He acknowledged the "personal relationship" between Duterte and former US President Donald Trump but noted that he could also establish rapport with Biden.

"Of course, there is an issue of personal relations but I think given time the President can establish equally warm personal relations with whoever wins this election even it's not President Trump," he said.

Biden was declared

President-elect after four days of vote-counting following record turnout across the country.

Trump refused to concede and threatened unspecified legal challenges regarding the vote counting process.

Biden's vice president, Kamala Harris also made history becoming the first woman, first Black American and first Asian-American to win the second highest US office. (PNA)

CAFTANS BY SM WOMAN

- 3. A playful, vibrant print to style indoors and out, this green and orange caftan will make everyday feel like a tropical escape.
- 4. Relax in a flowy feminine caftan with watercolor florals and soft hues.

- 5. SM Woman's lounge dresses in easy slip-on styles for wherever the day takes you – whether for a casual day to do errands or simply lounging at home.

If you want a break from the tees, jeans, and athleisure attire that have emerged as the OOTDs of this day, slip into the effortless ease of SM Woman's stylish caftans.

A traditional garment of the Middle East, caftans – which were made of luxurious silks and embellished with ornate beading - were worn by Ottoman sultans and Moroccan dignitaries of centuries past. The caftan was later introduced to Western society and adapted in the 1950s and 60s by leading couturiers such as Cristobal Balenciaga and Christian Dior as a new form of evening gown.

Since then, it has become a favorite among fashion icons like Andre Leon Talley, the Olsens, and Rihanna, as well as editors, designers, and the glamorous set. And with more of us spending more time at home, Tory Burch, Dolce & Gabbana, Gucci, Pucci, as well as Lilly Pulitzer have included the caftan in their latest collections.

That's because the caftan has a free-spirited ethos that feels equal parts luxurious and liberating, and its billowy, loose silhouette makes it so alluring.

The SM Woman caftan collection can work itself into an everyday wardrobe with ease. These mid-calf length caftans are, says Anthony Nocom, "made from quality charmeuse satin in floral prints that are cut with precision and good fit for women who want to feel good about themselves." Nocom, who has worked on menswear for SM for many years, has since transitioned into designing caftans, as well as lounge dresses and sleepwear for the store. The best part is their price, which range from P599.00 to P699.00.

Perfect for lounging around the house, working from home, running errands, and meeting friends, the SM Woman Caftan and Lounge dress collection is available at selected SM Stores in Metro Manila and provincial cities. (KCHT)

SMC readies food relief effort for Bicol, other hard-hit areas in Southern Luzon

San Miguel Corporation (SMC) is mobilizing its resources to quickly deliver much-needed food relief to the Bicol region and other provinces hit by super typhoon Rolly.

SMC president and chief operating officer Ramon S. Ang said that the company is channeling, initially, food products for Albay, Catanduanes, Sorsogon, Camarines Norte, Camarines Sur, Quezon Province, Romblon, Marinduque, Laguna, and Batangas.

The company, according to Ang, expects the amount of food donations to go higher as it looks to deliver aid to more affected provinces in the coming days.

"Right now, through our own people on the ground and upon coordination with various officials, we are trying to move as fast as we can to get food aid to hard-hit provinces," Ang said Monday morning, just a day after super typhoon Rolly battered Bicol region.

The super typhoon also affected many other areas in Luzon, including Cavite, Metro Manila, and parts of Pampanga, Zambales, Bulacan, Rizal, Mindoro among others.

"As we get a better hold of the situation in many areas—especially in terms of whether roads are already passable, and as to where aid can be brought—we will work to bring more food supplies to our affected kababayans through whatever means necessary," Ang said.

"Our people are already moving, and we will continue to reach out to more officials and provinces to extend help. At this time of great need, every effort goes a long way for our countrymen," he added. (JON HERNANDEZ/RMM)

63 DEADLY WEAPONS, ISINUKO NG MGA INMATES SA CAVITE PROVINCIAL JAIL

UMABOT sa 63 piraso na mga deadly weapons ang isinurender ng mga inmates sa Cavite Provincial Jail sa Trece Martires City sa isinagawang dayalogo sa mga Mayores ng bawat grupo ng bagong itinalagang Provincial Jail Warden.

Sinabi ng bagong Provincial Jail Warden Gil Torralba, na imbes na galugarin sa bisa ng "Oplan Galugad" ang provincial Jail, pinili nito na nakapag-dayalogo sa mga Mayores sa bawat grupo upang hikayatin ang nasasakupan nilang dormitory at boluntaryong isurender ang kanilang mga deadly weapons.

Agad namang tumalima ang mga inmates kung saan umabot sa 63 piraso na mga kutsilyo, blade at improvised weapons ang kanilang isinuko sa kanilang mga Mayores.

Ayon pa kay Torralba, ang ginawang dayalogo, imbes na Oplan Galugad ay isang hak-bang din bilang pag-iingat sa COVID 19 para sa kanilang mga staff na magsasagawa ng paglalugad sa loob ng provincial jail.

Bukod sa dayalogo, isang Para-Legal Service ang binuo rin ni Torralba kung saan ilang tauhan nito ang makikipag-usap sa mga matatagal nang inmates upang bigyan sila ng legal assistance para sa matatagal na nilang kaso at mabigyan ng panibagong pag-asa na posible pa silang makalaya.

Sa bagong pamumuno ni Torralba, pinapayagan rin ang mga inmates na makausap ang mga malalayo o di makabisitang mga kaanak, sa pamamagitan ng E-Dalaw, isang online face to face communication.

Sa kabuuan, nasa 569 ang bilang ng mga inmate sa walong dormitoryo, 70 sa kanila ay mga kababaihan, pinakamaraming kaso pa rin ang droga na may 346 inmates, 287 sa kanila ang mga kalalakihan.
