TESDAMAN, Senate seatmates swing by Laguna cities

The so-called Senate Seatmates—Senators Joel "TESDAMAN" Villanueva, Migz Zubiri, Win Gatchalian and former Senator JV Ejercito—went around key cities of Laguna on Wednesday, securing support from several local government units who welcomed the legislators to their respective cities.

In an ambush interview with reporters here in Binan City, the lawmakers expressed gratitude to City Mayor Arman Dimaguila Jr, Vice Mayor Gel Alonte, Rep. Len Alonte-Naguiat, and the city council for their warm hospitality.

Asked about the endorsements the lawmakers received from several presidential candidates, Villanueva surmised that it was the groups "track record of lawmaking that served as their common de-

"Lahat po kami, kaming apat, halos lahat po ng mga tumatakbo sa pagkapangulo at pangalawang pangulo, ineendorso po kami dahil mayroon po kaming common denominator. Yung track record namin sa Senado, hindi po matawaran. Napakaraming landmark legislations po naipasa ang grupong ito, at kaya po namin ipagpatuloy ito sa mga susunod na taon. Mabiligat ang hamon na ating haharapin matapos ang pandemya," Villanueva said.

For his part, Dima-guila expressed his support for the visiting lawmakers, crediting their track record of public service and legislation.

"Nagpapasalamat po kami kay Mayor Arman, Vice Mayor Gel, Cong. Len, at maging sa buong city council sa mainit na pagtanggap," Villanueva continued.

Villanueva said he intended to ensure the full implementation of the law creating the Department of Migrant Workers, a bill he shepherded in the Senate. He explained that organizing the DMW only puts all government agencies into one roof to address the needs of OFWs, and it does not change or shape state policy on promoting and cultivating the domestic labor industry.

Zubiri is considered the Father of the New Cooperative Code, being the principal sponsor and author of RA 9520 or the Philippine Cooperative Code of 2008. His investment in the growth of the cooperative sector has carried over to the current 17th Congress, where he chairs the Committee on Cooperatives.

Gatchalian helped push for the adoption of electric vehicles (EVs) as the country moves toward the promotion of sustainable transportation under the new normal. He is the principal author and sponsor of Senate Bill No. 1382 or the proposed Electric Vehicles and Charging Stations Act which was approved on 3rd reading by the Senate on May 31, 2021 and ratified by the Bicameral Conference Committee on December 16, 2021. (ROSELLE AQUINO)

cito na tatakbo siyang muli para sa Senado upang matiyak ang buong pagpapatupad nito sa gitna ng pandemya ng COVID-19.

Ayon kay Ejercito, naging dahilan ang pandemya upang mas luma-la ang mga kahinaan ng sistema ng pangangalaga sa kalusugan ng bansa at nagresulta upang mahadlangan ang pagpapatupad ng Universal Healthcare Law.

"I feel that it is my mission and obligation to finish and oversee the implementation of the Universal Healthcare Law, especially in its infancy," aniya.

"Kasi noong napasa siya ng 2019, first year of implementation noong 2020, nagkaroon naman ng pandemic. So, that's why I decided to run," dagdag pa niya.

Batay sa dating senador, ang healthcare system ng bansa ay dumaranas ng tatlong malal-aking problema sa gitna ng patuloy na pandemya: hindi sapat na mga pasilidad para sa pangangalaga ng kalusugan, mga naantalang benepisyo at pribilehiyo para sa mga health-care worker, at maling pamamahala sa programa ng PhilHealth.

Aniya, ang mga problemang ito ay maaaring matugunan sa pamamagitan ng buong pagpapatupad ng Universal Healthcare Law.

"I think that this pandemic will be here to stay. Di pa tapos ang laban natin dito. We really have to fight this pandemic together and yung UHC, I think, will help in this fight against the pandemic," pahayag ni Ejercito.

"As principal sponsor of the UHC, I feel that the wisdom of the principal sponsor will be very helpful as we implement the first few years. Sana po nandun po ang inyong lingkod,"
