Stop Cyberbullying, para sa magandang Mental Health

KABATAAN PATROLLER

ni MA. JOSEFINA
GWEN GUTIERREZ

Marahil mayroon ka nang social media account tulad ng Facebook, Instagram o Twitter.

At marahil naenjoy mo ding mag-scroll sa internet. Malaking tulong din naman ang internet world sa panahon ngayon lalo na't natutulungan tayo ng mga ito sa komunikasyon, business at nakatutulong din ang social media sa pag-sasaliksik para sa malawak na pagkatuto sa pamamagitan ng pag-bubukas ng iba't-ibang educational websites sa internet.

Subalit sa kabila nito, hindi pa rin maiiwasan ang mga negatibong epekto sa mga tao lalo na sa mga kabataan o estudyanteng katulad ko. Marami ang naadik sa social media na kung saan ang iba naman ay nabully nang dahil sap ag-gamit nito. Ngunit ano nga ba ang cyberbullying?

Ang cyberbullying ay nangyayari sa social media, ito ay pag-bibigay ng masasakit na salita a o threat sa biktima, maaaring ang bully ay kasing edad o mas matanda pa sayo, kung ito naman ay adult, ito ay matatawag na cyberharrasment o cyber-stalking. Ayon sa www.unicef.org na may mga kabataan o tao ang lumiliban sa klase dahil sa cyberbullying, ayon din dito sa ating bansa, may mga batang may edad 13-17 ang naapektuhan ng cyberviolence, ang cyberbullying ay maaring maka-apekto ng iyong mental health dahil ang biktima ay maaring maka-ranas ng anxiety o depression na maaring humantong sa suicidal thoughts o pag-iisip na kitilin ang sariling buhay. Bukod sa depression at anxiety ang cyberbullying o online bullying din ay maaaring humantong sa pagbaba ng self-esteem ng biktima, maari rin itong maging sanhi ng stress o trauma.

Ayon sa blog.securly, maraming anyo ang cyberbullying ang unang anyo ng cyberbullying ay exclusion, ito ay anyo ng bullying na nangyayari rin personal na pambully sa isang tao, ang halimbawa nito ay kapag ikaw ay hindi naimbita o isinali sa isang grupo habang ang mga mutual friends mo o mga kaibigan mo ay nandoon, ngunit ang grupo na kanilang isinagawa ay nag-iwan ng masasakit na salita o threat sayo. Ang pangalawa ay harassment, ito ay pagbibigay o pagse-send ng maaanghang na salita o threat sa biktima sa pamamagitan ng private message, chat o email. Ang pangatlo ay outing o doxing, ito ay anyo ng cyberbullying kung saan ibinabahagi ng suspek sa ibang tao ang personal na impormasyon o sensitibong impormasyon ng walang pahintulot o consent mula sa biktima, ginagawa ito ng suspek upang ipahiya ang biktima, maaari itong ibahagi ng suspek sa mga private groups o group chats. Ang pang-apat ay trickery ito ay katulad lamang ng outing, ito ay pakikipag-kaibigan ng suspek o cyberbully sa biktima, kapag siya ay iyong pinagkatiwalaan ikakalat na niya ang mga sensitibong impormasyon mo o ang iyong mga sikreto sa isang third party o sa multiple third parties. Ang pang-lima ay cyberstalking, ito ay seryosong anyo ng cyberbullying dahil maaari itong humantong sa self-harming o physical harm, ito ay false accusation, threats at maaari pang samahan ng offline stalking. Ang pang-anim naman ay fraping ito ay paggamit sa iyong social media account at gagamitin nya ito upang mag-post ng mga inappropriate content gamit ang iyong pangalan. Ang pang-pito naman ay masquerading ito ay pag-buo ng suspek ng pekeng social media account upang gamitin nya ito sa cyberbullying. Ang pang-walo naman ay dissing ito ay ginagawa ng suspek upang sirain ang reputasyon ng biktima sa pamamagitan ng pagpapakalat ng maling impormasyon tungkol sa biktima sa pamamagitan ng private message o public post. Ang pang-siyam ay trolling, ito ay pagco-comment ng suspek sa post ng biktima ng masasakit na salita. Ang huling anyo ng cyberbullying ay flaming, ito ay pang-iinsulto sa biktima maaari rin natin itong ihalintulad sa trolling, ngunit ito ay direkta o deretsyahan.

Kung ikaw ay nakaranas ng cyberbullying narito ang iyong dapat na gawin. Una, wag mo silang replayan, mawawalan sila ng interes kung hindi mo sila papansinin o bibigyang-pansin, pangalawa i-block mo ang kanilang mga mensahe o account na kanilang ginamit sa pambu-bully sayo, pangatlo, i-screenshot mo ang mga mensahe nila sayo, gagamitin mo ito bilang pruwera na ikaw ay kanilang na-bully, pang-apat, isumbong mo sila sa iyong magulang, nakatatandang kapatid, tagapag-alaga, guro, o sa kinauukulan. Kung ikaw naman ang cyberbully o internet bully, maari kang ma-trace at maparusahan sa iyong ginawa.

Madali lang para satin na mag-sabi o mag-bato ng masasakit na salita laban sa isang tao sa internet world, ngunit gaya nga ng sabi nila "think before you click", isipin muna natin ang mga sasabihin natin sa kanila, oo, madali ito para satin dahil hindi ito personal o face-to-face pero maaari mong maapektuhan ang damdamin ng biktima sa mga ibinabato nating mga salita sa kanila. Ilagay muna natin ang sarili natin sakanila bago tayo mag-bato ng masakit na salita.

DEPED, hinihikayat ang mga paaralan...

patuloy na ng face-to-face classes, ayon kay Briones.

"So, right now, ang sinasabi ko 73.28 percent na ng public schools at saka meron ding tayong mga private schools na inu-urge natin, ine-encourage natin na bumalik na sila sa face-to-face," ani Briones sa katatapos lamang na Laging Handa public briefing nitong Lunes.

"By June, which is already a few days away from now, sa next academic school year, ine-expect natin na fully 100 percent na ang pag-implement ng face-to-face," dagdag niya.

Nang tanungin na linawin kung ano ang ibig nilang sabihin tungkol sa ganap na pagbubukas ng face-to-face classes, sinabi ni DepEd Undersecretary Diosdado San Antonio na hinihikayat nila ang lahat ng paaralan na magsagawa ng in-person learning.

Gayunman, sinabi niya na ang tinitingnan ng kanilang ahensya ay pagkakaroon ng blended setup kung saan may mga araw na ang mga mag-aaral ay pisikal na naroroon sa paaralan at ilang araw na papayagang mag-aral sa kani-kanilang bahay.

"Ang ibig pong sabihin natin ay hinihikayat na natin ang lahat ng paaralan na magsagawa ng face-to-face classes pero ang tinitingnan po namin na blended, may face-to-face na mga araw, at may araw na papayagan na nasa mga bahay pa rin natututo ang mga bata," paliwanag niya.

Matatandaan na nitong buwan ay naalarma si Briones sa mababang bilang ng mga pribadong paaralan na nagdaraos ng mga personal na klase.

Seasoned firefighter-drug buster is set to put his badge to rest

By Benjie J. Murillo

On June 11, 2022, Bureau of Fire Protection (BFP) veteran firefighter Senior Inspector Von Ferdinand Sangalang Nicasio is set to retire his badge reaching the compulsory retirement age of 56-years-old set for the members of the uniformed service in the country.

An Electrical Engineer by profession, Nicasio entered the Fire Service on October 25, 1993 where he was assigned at the Office of the Batangas Provincial Fire Marshal. During his fresh years in the service, he involved himself in schooling and training to hone his skills and equip himself with the essential knowledge and capability to become both an efficient firefighter and skilled fire safety inspector.

He also gone through some learning and development trainings on competence in inspection, safety and preventive maintenance and electro-mechanical motor control in his early years.

A few years later, he was included in the team of fire safety inspectors assigned to check vital facilities like power plants and mixed occupancy establishment, ergo, he saw the need to diligently study the Fire Code of the Philippines, as well as the Electrical Code and the volumes of NFPA Codes and Standards for the elimination of death, injury, property and economic loss due to fire, electrical and related hazards.

After four gripping hours of the operation, the shell was carefully salvaged and brought by the combined BFP and PAF teams to San Fernando Air Base in the city for proper disposal.

On January 12, 2020, Nicasio's valor was again tested when one of the country's most active volcano erupted - Taal Volcano.

intelligent fire officer's gallantry was put to test during the election-related fire incident that marred the Year 2017 Election in the town of Taysan in Batangas Province, some 70 kilometers south of Manila that killed a teacher-election inspector and poll watcher.

Nicasio, who was then the provincial operation officer rushed to the scene with his six-man crew upon receiving the alarm. Their swift arrival caused the armed mask perpetrators who set the Bayanan Elementary School ablaze to flee, as a result saving the other polling precincts and crucial election paraphernalia from the mayhem. Crime evidence were also preserved while injured victims rushed to the nearest hospitals for treatment.

During his term as fire marshal of Lipa City, Nicasio also led his team of firefighters in responding to a call for assistance from Lipa City Police Office to support the Philippine Air Force soldiers having some difficulty in unearthing an incendiary vintage bomb discovered from the excavation on the construction site in Barangay-2.

Nicasio's vast experience in emergency and rescue operations, including his training in explosive ordnance disposal (EOD) had become a big help for PAF EOD team at the site in identifying and safe retrieval of the 1,000 pounds 1.5-meters long and 1.5-foot diameter World War-2 chemical bomb with fuses on both tip and tail.

At that period, he happens to be the fire marshal of the Municipality of Lemery, one of the towns in the 7-kilometer danger zone badly damaged by the tragedy.

He and his team worked 24/7 combing the town's 46 barangays (villages) evacuating thousands of affected inhabitants to temporary relocation centers. In the extent of volcanic activity spewing huge plume of hazardous ash and tremors causing major fissures on the roads and damage to properties, Nicasio led his command in the daily patrolling of streets to ensure evacuees' belongings and houses are safe from looters.

In his stint as Lipa City Fire Marshal, Nicasio, a practical shooter and member of the Philippine Practical Shooting Team got the greatest challenge in his career when he was named by then Lipa City Mayor Meynard A. Sabili as Executive Officer of the Task Force Kontra Droga of the City Anti-Illegal Drug Abuse Council in response to the anti-drug war of President Rodrigo R. Duterte, making him the only fireman-drug buster in the country.

Nicasio and his Task Force busted various illegal drug operations and confiscated drug paraphernalia, guns and ammo, and substantial amounts of illegal drugs. The arrested suspects were also brought to the court of law in violation of R.A. 9165, known as the Comprehensive Dangerous Drugs Act.

His involvement in the city's anti-drug war had immensely contributed to the massive decrease of illegal drug trade and use, and the surrender of more than 5,000 drug users for rehabilitation.

A holder of Master in Public Administration degree, Nicasio is also a recipient of various awards, such as: Medalya ng Papuri; Medalya ng Kasanayan; Natatanging Public Servant Award; Junior Fire Officer of the Year Award (twice); Batangueño Modern Day Hero; Statesman Award by Penpower for Democracy and Good Government; Valuable Service Award; Best City Fire Marshal, and numerous honorifics. Although the retirement of his badge pinned near his heart being a symbol of his loyalty and dedication to duty as public servant is about befall, Von, as his friends and relatives fondly call him, it will become the proudest and most significant moment of his career, to surrender his badge after 29 years of sterling and fruitful career in the fire service.
