PBBM tasks DPWH to conduct swift inspection of hospitals, clinics

President Ferdinand Marcos Jr. (2nd from left) reads the situational briefing during his visit to Abra province on Thursday (July 28, 2022). The province is under a state of calamity following a magnitude 7 earthquake.

MANILA - President Ferdinand "Bongbong" Marcos Jr. on Thursday instructed the Department of Public Works and Highways (DPWH) to prioritize the inspection of hospitals and health care facilities in Abra following the magnitude 7 earthquake that jolted the province.

"Do the inspections first of the public buildings. I think your priority will be quite right is the hospital, unahin natin even before the government buildings, 'yung mga offices, 'yung mga ganoon. Unahin natin 'yung ospital," he said during a situational briefing in Abra.

In his visit to the province, the chief executive personally checked the condition of the Abra Provincial Hospital and its patients.

"Let's go first to the hospital, let's go first to the clinics, the health care centers... then we can then go look at the government buildings after which we can, puntahan na rin natin 'yung mga bahay ng mga tao para makita kung puwede na talaga sila — safe na sila," he added.

According to the Department of Social Welfare and Development - Cordillera Administrative Region (DSWD-CAR), there are a total of 28 totally damaged houses, while 2,362 were par-

FORMER HEALTH SECRETARIES RENEW CALLS TO VETO THE VAPE BILL

Calam - ba City - Former Health

Secretaries Dr. Jaime Galvez Tan and Dr. Esperanza Cabral appealed to President Ferdinand Marcos Jr. to veto the Vape Regulation Bill (SB 2239) and fully implement existing regulatory provisions on such products contained in Republic Act Nos. 11346 and 11467 that were passed in 2019 and 2020 respectively. The call is in light of the recent ruling of the Supreme Court (SC) affirming the authority of the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) over tobacco products.

The Vape Regulation Bill is one of the bills that were submitted late in the former Administration that was then inherited by President Ferdinand Marcos Jr.

The SC, in the case filed by the Philippine Tobacco Institute to question the authority of the FDA over tobacco products, ruled that Section 25 of Republic Act No. 9711 clearly establishes that the law shall cover all health products, except for acts covered by special laws. Hence, matters not covered by special laws remain under the FDA's broad regulatory authority.

Cabral underscored that for the longest time that the public health community continues to assert that DOH and the FDA have jurisdiction over tobacco and similar products such as vape products or e-cigarettes. "The FDA and the DOH should have the final say on any and all products that impact people's health," Cabral said.

For his part, former Health Secretary Jaime Galvez Tan said that this decision ultimately tells the public that the health experts in this country are the DOH and the FDA. "Policy-makers and the public should listen to FDA and DOH instead of industry-backed groups claiming to be health experts but are actually peddling vapes."

Prior to stepping down as Secretary of Health, Dr. Francisco Duque III also reiterated the agency's position against the Vape Bill and categorically stated that their 'end goal' is that the Vape bill will not be enacted into law.

In an earlier statement, Former Secretary Duque also referred to the vape bill as a 'Trojan horse' to the former administration. He explains that "The bill will achieve the opposite of its intended purpose of strengthening tobacco industry regulation as it relaxes the restrictions on the minimum age of access, flavorings, regulation, distribution, advertising, promotion, sale, and use of these products."

Atty. Alexander Padilla, former Undersecretary of Health, is of the view that this is an opportunity for the DOH and FDA to assert its mandate over tobacco products and vapes. "The broad powers of the FDA as affirmed by the Supreme Court should be used by the agency to consolidate the regulations for vapes and tobacco to ensure effective enforcement for the protection of public health."

Former Civil Service Commissioner Mary Ann Z. Fernandez-Mendoza highlights the acknowledgement of the Supreme Court on the competence and mandate of the FDA 'to ensure safety, efficacy, purity, and quality' health products which includes tobacco products because it negatively impacts health. "This decision is important to improving good governance in our country as it rationalizes the functions of government agencies. To divide jurisdiction over tobacco and vapes that are harmful to health would mean that protection of public health will have to be compromised with other interests," Mendoza said. "If public health is compromised, like what the vape bill does, public health loses."

Southeast Asia Tobacco Control Alliance (SEATCA) Executive Director Dr. Ulysses Dorotheo likewise urged President Ferdinand Marcos, Jr to veto the vape bill, citing the President's earlier veto of the Bulacan Airport special economic zone. In rejecting the House Bill 7575, which seeks the establishment of the Bulacan Airport City Special Economic Zone and Freeport in Bulakan town, President Marcos noted that its provisions infringes on or conflict with other agencies' mandates and authorities. He also noted that the enrolled bill "lacks coherence with existing laws, rules, and maraming hamon.

Binanggit niya ang ilan sa mga puhunan na inaasahan ng lalawigan sa susunod na tatlong taon, gayundin ang pagtatapos ng konstruksyon ng bagong Capitol Building noong Mayo 2023—ang unang pasilidad na walang carbon sa bansa na pinapagana ng solar energy.

Binigyang-diin pa niya na ang sikreto ng lalawigan sa tagumpay ay hindi ang pamumuno nito kundi ang mga tao nito.

Ang nasabing event na pinangunahan ng Bacoor City Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Inc. ay nakatuon sa pagbangon mula sa pandemya ng iba't ibang sektor. (GOCAVITE) regulations."

"The President vetoed the bill (HB 7575) because it is not consistent with existing laws and fiscal reforms. The same is true with the vape bill. It is inconsistent with existing laws that already regulate these products by limiting flavors to menthol and tobacco, limiting access to those aged 21 years and above, and mandating the FDA to regulate these harmful products," Dr. Dorotheo stressed. "The vape bill will weaken these regulations and is against the Marcos administrations' policy to provide better health and better life for Filipinos. We hope the President sees the inconsistency in the vape bill and vetoes it before July 24."

To date, there is still no news from the Office of the President on the fate of the Vape Bill. (ROSELLE AQUINO) tially damaged.

DSWD-CAR Director Arnel Garcia said the number could still go up as the assessment is still ongoing and authorities have yet to check the outlying barrios.

This developed as provincial officials said evacuation centers were set up in open areas in the province.

Department of Science and Technology Undersecretary and Philippine Institute of Volcanology and Seismology officer-in-charge Renato Solidum Jr. said residents could go back to their homes once inspections show that structures are safe.

Solidum, however, cautioned that aftershocks are expected to continue for several weeks.

"People should be ready how to respond properly during after-shocks kasi malakas pa po ang posibleng aftershock," he said. (PND)

8 media poser arrested for extortion

Kampo Heneral Paciano Rizal, Sta Cruz, Laguna- Eight suspects who posed as media personalities and allegedly extorted money from a funfair owner was arrested in Calamba City, Laguna.

Laguna Police Provincial Commander Col Cecilio Ison Jr identified the suspects as Anne Cortez, Eric Floro, Rose Marie Malazarte, Benjamin Javier Jr, Theresa Regaza, Christopher Yu, Efren Regaza, and Rodamy Prado.

Based on the report of Calamba City Police, victim Jinggoy Cahanap, 34 years old, owner of the single stander amusement requested for police assistance.

According to the victim, he was at Checkpoint Purok 1, Barangay Paciano, Calamba City, Laguna when the suspects on board a Toyota FX arrived and identified themselves as media personnel.

The victim said he was harassed by the suspects when he only gave P2,000.00 instead of the P8,000.00 weekly protection money while threatening him that if he refuses, his funfair will be forcibly closed.

Acting upon the report, personnel of Calamba City Police proceeded to the place of incident to validate the said report that led to the arrest of suspects.

Recovered from the suspects were several fictitious identification cards and the extortion money. It was also found out that the suspects are the same persons who were reporting false information through E-sumbong and PNP Info Text dragging the name of Calamba City Police and the Chief of Police.

Ison said, "We will investigate this matter. This is a rising concern which we must address to halt the modus operandi of these persons who are patrolling around funfair business establishments to extort money in exchange for 'the continuity of the business operations.' These culprits are seemingly the same persons who are sending us (PNP) thru social media and our hotline numbers. We have started to launch operations to address these concerns."

In his message, PRO4A Regional Director Brig Gen Antonio Yarra said, "Hindi natin tino-tolerate ang mga modus operandi ng mga personalities katulad nito. Additionally, ang mga programs ng PNP katulad ng E-sumbong at PNP info text at mag hotlines ay para sa mga legitimate complaints o concerns ng ating mga kababayan na humihingi ng tulong pangseguridad, huwag itong gamitin ng kung sino man para kumita; otherwise, the law shall pursue you." (ROSELLE AQUINO)
