MANILA - Malacañang on Friday expressed concern over the detection of first case of monkeypox in the Philippines.

"This is not particularly fatal but it is of concern," said Press Secretary Trixie Cruz-Angeles in a Palace press briefing.

This, after the Department of Health (DOH) confirmed the first case of monkeypox in the country, involving a 31-year-old Filipino who returned to the country from an overseas trip last July 19.

The reverse transcription-polymerase chain reaction (RT-PCR) test result conducted Thursday showed that the unnamed patient is positive for monkeypox, said DOH officer-in-charge (OIC) Undersecretary for Public Health Services Team Beverly Ho.

The patient is observing strict isolation and monitoring at home, Ho said.

Despite the discovery of monkeypox in the country, Cruz-Angeles said the DOH is on top of the situation.

"So, the primary concern is to get the in-

Press Secretary Trixie Cruz-Angeles

formation out so that people will be aware, but also to be aware that the systems of DOH are in place," she said.

Cruz-Angeles also allayed public fear,

Solo no more. Nagkaroon ng diyalogo sa pagitan ng Sangguniang Panlungsod ng Calamba sa pangunguna ni Vice Mayor Angelito Lazaro Jr. at ng Calambenyo Solo Parents Inc. na kung saan tinalakay ang pagdadraft ng isang ordinansa na naglalayong madagdagan ang mga benepisy na pwedeng matanggap ng mga solo parent sa ilalim ng RA 11861 o mas kilala sa The Expanded Solo Parents Welfare Act. Ilan sa mga probisyong nakapaloob sa RA 11861 ay makatatanggap ng hindi bababa sa 1000Php na cash subsidy bawat buwan para sa mga kumikita ng minimum wage and below; magkakaroon ng 10 percent discount sa Value Added Tax (VAT) para sa mga gatas, pagkain at micronutrient supplement ni baby, sa mga bibilhing diapers at iba pang medical supplements. Ito ay simula pagkapanganak hanggang ika-anim na taon ng bata para sa mga solo parent na kumikita ng mas mababa sa 250,000 bawat taon; -pagkakaroon ng Philhealth benefits na kung saan babayaran ng National Government ang kontribusyon ng premium coverage. pagbibigay prayoridad sa mga solo parent sa pagpasok sa trabaho.

Ilan lamang ito sa mga benepisyong maaaring matanggap ng mga solo parent sa Calamba kung maipapasa ang isasagawang ordinansa.

Sinigurado naman ni VM Totie na pagtutulungan ng buong Sangguniang Panlungsod ng Calamba na mapag-aralan ang legalidad at iba pang technicalities ng ordinansa upang maisakatuparan na ang mga karagdagang benepisy at maging katuwang ang lungsod para sa/ ng mga solo parent. (MARRA VILLEGAS)

MGA SANGKOT SA ILIGAL NA PAG-REFILL NG TANGKE NG LPG SA GENTRI, ARESTADO

Inaresto ng mga awtoridad ang plant manager at mga tauhan na umano'y sangkot sa iligal na pag-refill ng mga tangke ng liquefied petroleum gas (LPG) sa General Trias, Cavite. Nahuli umano ang mga tauhan sa akto ng pagre-refill ng mga tangke ng mga kilalang brand, ayon sa ulat ni Marisol Abdurahman sa Unang Balita ng GMA News nitong Martes.

Armado ng search warrant, pumasok sa isang compound ang mga operatiba ng Anti-Organized Crime Unit ng Criminal Investigation and Detection Group (AOCU-CIDG) ng Philippine National Police kung saan naitagpuan ang mga suspek. Tinangka pa umanong tumakas ng mga ito.

Arestado din ang mga customer na nagpa-refill ng mga tangke ng LPG sa naturang compound.

"Hindi po sila allowed na mag-refill ng product," ani Police Major Bryan Salveron of AOCU-CIDG. "Nag-conduct kami ng test-buy. Mga about four times kami nag-conduct just to ensure na talagang nagkaroon ng illegal refilling sa loob ng refilling plant."

Dinala ang mga suspek sa Camp Crame. Tumanggi silang magbigay ng komento, ngunit sinabi naman ng abogado ng kumpanya na wala silang ilegal na aktibidad.

"We're not doing anything illegal. I'm pretty sure of that. So that's why I'm saying that everything will be resolved in court in due time," pahayag ni Atty. Francis Tiu, legal counsel ng Pryce Gas.

Gayunman, sinabi ng isang kinatawan ng mga nagreklamo na ang kanilang mga dealers ang nagsabi sa umano'y ilegal na aktibidad.

"Yung pinakabarbula niya, 'yung kinakabitan ng regulator, pinapalitan po 'yon. 'Yon po ang delikado. 'Pag sumingaw po, doon na magkakaroon ng aksidente na magkakaroon ng malaking sunog," saad ni Jonathan Dulay, brand protection agent.

Kinumpiska ng mga awtoridad ang ilang kagamitan sa planta at inihain na ang kaukulang kaso laban sa mga suspek. (GO CAVITE) stressing that monkeypox is "not the same" as the coronavirus disease 2019 (Covid-19).

"First of all, it's only one case, number one. Number two, as you can see, it does not affect the entire population. Number three, this is not like Covid that can be spread by air very easily and could possibly be fatal," she said.

Monkeypox virus is transmitted with lesions, body fluids, and respiratory droplets, the World Health Organization (WHO) said.

Included among the primary transmission is intimate skin to skin contact, (including sexually transmitted) as health authorities emphasize the importance of hand washing and avoid contact with suspect cases.

Upon detection of the recent case, the DOH immediately quarantined the person.

The symptoms of the disease include fever, intense headache, muscle aches, back pain, low energy, swollen lymph nodes and a skin rash or lesions.

The WHO said vaccination against smallpox may help stop the monkeypox virus transmission. (PNA) by CIDG RFU4A detectives, Sibayan is a former PNP member of Quirino Police Provincial Office who was dismissed from the service after being included in the list of PNP personnel involved in illegal drugs and thereafter involved in the killing of his own colleague, Police Officer 3 Joven Valdez Gabatin on August 17, 2017.

Sibayan after the incident fled Quirino Province and went into hiding. However, after almost half a decade of fleeing the law, the long arms of justice was able to catch on him, thus his arrest in Cabuyao City, Laguna.

Sibayan is tagged as Regional Most Wanted Person of Police Regional Office 4A.

The successful arrest of the accused is the result of the effective collaboration with the community who gave vital informations for the successful anti-criminality operation of the CIDG.

BFP MANILA celebrates 121st Anniversary

DILG Secretary Abalos is Guest of Honor and Speaker

GUMOWANG

MANILA - The Bureau of Fire Protection Manila Fire District-1 (MFD1) will celebrate on August 8, its 121st Anniversary in commemoration to the establishment of the Manila Fire Department on August 7, 1901.

Department of the Interior and Local Government Secretary Benhur C. Abalos, Jr. is expected to attend the grand celebration at the historic Manila Hotel as guest of honor and speaker.

MFD1 District Director Sr. Supt. Crosbee B. Gumowang said, the celebration will focus on the development of the agency since its conception 121-years ago, as well as the resiliency of Manila firefighters in challenging times.

Abalos together with Chief BFP Director Louie S. Puracan and Gomowang will lead the presentation of awards to MFD1 units and personnel, including volunteer fire brigades and firefighters cited for outstanding performance and achievements in service over the past year.

Among other invited guests are ambassadors, congressmen and local officials of the City of Manila headed by Mayor Honey Lacuna-Pangan.

A few months after the capture of General Emilio Aguinaldo, who is leading the Filipino insurgent forces during the Filipino-American war, the United States War Department fielded a team of American gazetteers to take an exact record of what Manila could offer to the new government.

They found out, among other things, that the Filipinos operated a volunteer law enforcement and firefighting system called "ronda," composed of volunteer residents armed with wooden clubs, buckets of water, pails of sand, ladder and other firefighting equipment while on duty.

In its effort to restore Manila on its normal condition, the American engineers used the gravity of the Montalban hills, some 28-kilometers south of Manila, to supply the water needs of the city and protect the residents from fire. Around 32,000 units of telephone system were also installed together with electrical lighting system which contributed in the advancement of communication and firefighting force at that time.

In August 7, 1901, the United States Philippine Commission finally organized the Manila Fire Department under the Department of Streets, Parks, Fire and Sanitation with Captain F.R. Dodge as its first fire chief.

A total of eight fire stations were built during the American regime, all are now part of the country's historical sites, except for San Lazaro Fire Station that was turned into a modern four-storey building housing the MFD-1 headquarters, and the San Lazaro Fire Station which was converted into a court house.

On August 8, 1975, Presidential Decree No. 765 was issued by then President Ferdinand R. Marcos, Sr., establishing the Philippine Constabulary Integrated National Police or the PC/INP as the country's national police force, wherein the Fire Department was integrated into a national police force with the Philippine Constabulary as its nucleus.

Then, on January 29, 1991 pursuant to the provisions of Republic Act No. 6975, which established the Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG), hereby created the Bureau of Fire Protection (BFP) as a uniformed agency under the Interior sector, together with the Philippine National Police (PNP) and the Bureau of Jail Management and Penology (BJMP).
