Simple acts of service, kindness shape modern-day heroes

Heroism often begins quietly. Not through grand gestures or acts of ultimate sacrifice for the nation. More often, it takes shape in quiet moments—in a helping hand freely offered, in compassion shown without expectation, and in kindness extended to those who need it most.

This was the prevailing message made by local officials during the commemoration of the 129th anniversary of Rizal Day in Calamba City. Beyond remembering the life and sacrifice of the national hero Dr. Jose P. Rizal, the ceremony became a tribute to today's modern-day heroes or the ordinary individuals whose simple acts of service continue to strengthen communities and inspire hope.

For Calamba City Mayor Roseller Rizal, kin of the national hero, Rizal's legacy remains deeply relevant even after more than a century. He said that while 129 years have passed since Rizal's execution by colonial rulers, the ideals he lived and wrote for continue to guide Filipinos, especially in times of adversity.

"Hanggang ngayon, pinag-uusapan ang mensaheng kanyang iniwan sa pamamagitan ng kanyang kakaibang buhay at ang kanyang malalim na mga sulatin. Magpahanggang ngayon, sa mga panahong tayo ay paulit-ulit na bumabangon mula sa mga hamon ng buhay, ang kanyang mga aral at diwa pa rin ang nagsisilbing tunay nating gabay," Rizal said.

The mayor noted that Rizal faced his final moments with hope—hope that Filipinos would one day rise together, united in purpose and committed to building a peaceful and progressive nation.

"Tayo po ay naniniwala na namatay si Rizal na may pag-asa sa puso—pag-asa na tayo ay babangon muli at muli, magkakaisa, at sama-samang magsisikap para sa isang tahimik at maunlad na kinabukasan," he added.

As the country continues to navigate challenges, Calamba City lone district Representative Charisse Anne Hernandez-Alcantara reminded the public, particularly the youth, that heroism is not limited by titles, positions, or recognition. It lives in everyday choices to do good and serve others.

"You can be a hero even without a title or position. Anyone can be a hero—in the simple acts of kindness that we choose to do every day," Hernandez-Alcantara said.

She then likens healthcare workers who continue to heal despite fatigue, teachers who shape young minds, public transport drivers who keep communities moving, and government workers who quietly serve the public day after day, as the modern-day heroes.

Drawing inspiration from Rizal's life, the lawmaker emphasized that true heroism begins with the courage to believe that change is possible.

"Ang mga taong katulad ng ating mga kababayan, katulad ng ating pambansang bayani na si Gat Jose Rizal, ay yaong mga nagkusang baguhin ang kanilang realidad. Naniwala siya na hindi dapat ganito lamang ang buhay, kaya't ipinaglaban niya ang edukasyon, ang dangal ng Pilipino, at ang kakayahan ng isang simpleng mamamayan—kahit walang posisyon—na magmalasakit at maglingkod sa bayan," she said.

Rizal Day commemoration only comes once a year, but the message resonates clearly: heroism is not limited to the persons of the past, as it not distant or unattainable. In a time when hardship and uncertainty have become familiar to many, choosing kindness, extending help, and serving others, no matter how small the act, remain powerful ways to honor Rizal's legacy.

For in these quiet, everyday moments of service, modern-day heroes are shaped, and the foundation of a stronger nation is built. (CH/PIA-Laguna)

Laguna Gov. introduces 'citizen journalism' approach in policing, law enforcement

SANTA CRUZ, Laguna — Aiming to make policing more community-centered and people-oriented, Laguna Governor Sol Aragones is pushing for a renewed strategy in maintaining peace and order in the province through citizen journalism and participatory policing.

Aragones issued the directive during the New Year's Call of the Laguna Police Provincial Office on January 16, attended by Acting Provincial Director Police Colonel Jonar Yupio and the chiefs of police of the province's cities and municipalities.

A former veteran news broadcaster, Aragones said the initiative aims to strengthen information dissemination on police and emergency operations. Central to the plan is the establishment of a command center where residents can instantly report possible risks, hazards, and suspicious activities to authorities using their smartphones.

"Paigtingin natin ang information dissemination. Dapat ang bawat tao, parang citizen journalism—kung may makita silang krimen o danger sa isang lugar, gamit ang kanilang mga cellphone ay agad nilang maitetext o matatawagan ang mga pulis. Mangyayari lang ito kung malinaw at kalat sa buong Laguna kung sino ang dapat nilang tawagan," Aragones said.

To support the initiative, information, education, and communication materials containing police contact details will be displayed in high-convergence areas such as markets, churches, and other public places starting this week.

The governor emphasized that a clear and accessible reporting system can help change public behavior, making emergency reporting a routine practice for residents.

"Sa panahon na may nangyaring krimen, madalas aligaga at litong-lito ang tao—hindi alam kung saan dapat tumawag, kanino hihingi ng tulong, o saan tatakbo. Kung ang mga numerong ito ay araw-araw nilang nakikita, magkakaroon ng retention at alam na nila kung saan sila lalapit," Aragones explained.

She also reminded police forces to further expand their presence across the province, including in remote communities and sitios, following the recent gruesome killing of an eight-year-old boy in San Pablo City, Laguna.

"Iba kapag may police visibility sa bawat barangay. Kung bawat barangay at bawat bayan ay may presensya ng pulis, ngayon ay susuungin na rin natin ang bawat sitio para masigurong may nagbabantay, dahil isa itong deterrent sa mga krimeng maaaring mangyari," she said.

Aragones further stressed that police work must extend beyond stations and into the communities.

"Para sa akin, ang totoong laban ng mga pulis ay wala sa police station. Ang totoong laban ay nasa lansangan kung saan nagaganap ang mga krimen," she added.

Meanwhile, the Laguna PPO reported a further decline in the province's crime rate, attributed to sustained police operations, including arrests related to illegal drugs, illegal possession of firearms, and intensified campaigns against gambling, smuggling, and illegal logging.

Laguna currently has a police-to-population ratio of one police personnel for every 1,786 residents. With a stronger community-engaged and people-centered approach, the Laguna PPO remains committed to carrying out the governor's directives and implementing programs that ensure the safety and well-being of Lagunenses. Camp BGen Pantaleon Garcia, City of Imus, Cavite – Personnel of the Dasmariñas Component City Police Station, successfully arrested a male individual for violation of Republic Act No. 10591 (Comprehensive Firearms and Ammunition Regulation Act) in Dasmariñas City, Cavite, at around 6:00 PM on January 19, 2026.

The suspect was identified as alias "Dominic", and a resident of Dasmariñas City, Cavite.

Four clients from institutions under the CARD Mutually Reinforcing Institutions (CARD MRI) were honored as Digital Champions at the 4th Digital Financial Inclusion Awards (DFIA) held at the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) Assembly Hall in Malate, Manila.

The awardees include two clients of CARD, Inc. (A Microfinance NGO), and one client each from CARD Bank, a microfinance-oriented rural bank, and CARD SME Bank, a thrift bank.

As a mutually reinforcing network, CARD MRI integrates financial and social development services with digital innovations to support client enterprises and improve quality of life. "It's such an honor for us to support these award-winning entrepreneurial journeys. Their success inspires us to keep our mission moving forward," said CARD MRI Managing Director Aristeo A. Dequito.

Inspiring stories of digital transformation

Among the awardees is Carmelita Dapanas, a CARD, Inc. client from Manticao, Misamis Oriental. She operates a hydroponic farm producing green bell peppers and salad tomatoes, alongside coconuts and cacao that she processes into tablea. By leveraging Facebook, Messenger, and mobile cash services, she connects with customers nationwide and now supplies hotels, restaurants, and public markets in Iligan City and nearby areas.

Another CARD, Inc. awardee, Annalisa Monil from Bilar, Bohol, transformed the Bilar Stem Vegetable Farm into a thriving enterprise that supplies resorts and restaurants in Panglao Island, while also operating a retail store in Tagbilaran City. By accepting orders through Messenger and processing payments via mobile cash services and online banking, she has significantly expanded her market reach—creating more livelihood opportunities within her community.

Raquel Lanaban, a CARD Bank, Inc. client from Bilusa, Davao City, was also recognized for her batik and handcrafted products business, which she established in 2010. By leveraging Facebook and Messenger, she increased her sales by 90%, adopted digital payment options, and now supports a network of resellers across five areas in Mindanao.

Meanwhile, Niel Danica Polong, a CARD SME Bank, Inc. client from Silang, Cavite, transformed her pancit business into an online favorite after launching a Facebook page during the pandemic. With the introduction of cashless payment options and an expanded menu, 60 to 70 percent of her orders now come from online customers.

Digital Financial Inclusion Awards

The Digital Financial Inclusion Awards (DFIA) is a financial inclusion initiative funded by the Citi Foundation, in partnership with Microfinance Council and supported by Citi Philippines and the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP). Now in its fourth year when it spun off from the previously known Citi Microentrepreneurship Awards (CMA), it recognizes outstanding microentrepreneurs and microfinance institutions that effectively use digital solutions to conduct financial transactions, strengthen enterprises, and expand livelihood opportunities.

BSP Governor Eli M. Remolona Jr. highlighted the shifting narrative around microentrepreneurs during the awarding ceremony, noting that digital tools were long perceived as too technical, costly, and complicated. He emphasized that the awardees have proven this notion outdated, demonstrating that with simple yet innovative solutions— such as online selling, QR payments, and digital business systems— Filipino entrepreneurs are redefining what is possible in the digital economy.

The ceremony also recognized 13 other microentrepreneurs and three MFIs. Each awardee received PHP 100,000 in cash and a laptop to further support their digital transformation.

The recognition of CARD MRI clients at the DFIA highlights the growing role of digital innovation in inclusive finance. These awardees showed how technology can empower communities, strengthen livelihoods, and pave the way for sustainable growth across the Philippines.
