In line with the nationwide observance of Drug Abuse Prevention and Control (DAPC) Week, more than 400 Barangay Kontra Droga (BKD) advisers and senior high school student leaders from across Cavite convened at the Tanza Convention Center on November 19, for the Youth's Choice: A Drug-Free Life Engagement Program. The regional gathering aimed to strengthen youth involvement in drug prevention initiatives and promote a unified stand for a safer, drug-free CALABARZON.

The event was spearheaded by DILG IV-A, in partnership with DepEd IV-A, the Dangerous Drugs Board (DDB), and the Philippine Drug Enforcement Agency (PDEA), with the support of various provincial offices and youth organizations across the region.

A key feature of the program was the Drug-Free Life lecture delivered by PDEA 4A, which provided participants with critical insights on the impacts of drug abuse, current drug trends, and the vital role of informed advocacy in prevention efforts. This was followed by the presentation of programs and services by the National Youth Commission and the Cavite Provincial Anti-Drug Abuse Council (CPADAC), offering youth leaders a deeper understanding of available platforms and partnerships that support their engagement in community-based anti-drug initiatives. One of the highlights of the celebration was the recognition of winners of the regional digital poster making and short film making contests, showcasing the creativity, talent, and strong anti-drug commitment of CALABARZON youth. The winning entries reflected powerful visual narratives underscoring the importance of choosing a healthy, drug-free lifestyle.

The program also marked a significant milestone for the Department of the Interior and Local Government with the unveiling and conferment of the Drug-Free Workplace status to DILG IV-A and all its provincial offices. The recognition underscores the agency's steadfast commitment to integrity, professionalism, and fostering a safe and accountable working environment.

Bringing together aspiring youth advocates and key government partners, the Youth's Choice: A Drug-Free Life Engagement Program reaffirmed the crucial role of the youth sector in shaping resilient, well-informed communities. The gathering served not only as a celebration of DAPC Week but also as a renewed call to action empowering young leaders to champion a future anchored on awareness, responsibility, and a collective commitment to a drug-free CALABARZON.--- OPIO

Sampung (10) batang innovator mula sa

Cavite ang nakatakdang kumatawan sa Pilipinas sa darating na World Robot Games (WRG) na gaganapin sa Taiwan mula Nobyembre 26 hanggang 29, 2025.

Ang prestihiyosong kumpetisyong ito ay inaasahang lalahukan ng daan-daang kabataang robotics enthusiasts mula sa iba't ibang bansa sa Asya at Europa.

Ang mga kalahok na Caviteño ay kinabibilangan nina Andrei Jigerson H. Samaniego, Claude Ron R. Abriol, Fiona Nathalie J. Rosga, Bryzen R. Villanueva, Solenn Marie L. Quejado, Kylie Mathew M. Kabilang sila sa mga nanguna sa categoryang ibeam, sumo auto, beam battle, robot soccer, ball fight, autonomous programming, line tracing, one minute games, at soccer bots, na lahat ay tampok sa taunang paligsahan. Na gagabayan ng apat na coach na sina Jellina J. Rosga, Rolan E. Briones, Justin Manuel F. Fauni, at Amy F. Frilles.

Ayon sa kanilang coach na si Teacher Jellina Rosga, puspusan

Sa bawat piyesa at bawat coding na pinagpuyatan namin, dala namin ang kwento ng pag-asa at sakripisyo. Habang hinaharap namin ang mundo, ipinaglalaban namin hindi lang ang trofeo, kundi ang pangarap ng bawat kabataang Pilipinong naniniwalang kaya nilang makarating sa pinakamataas, saan mang dako ng mundo", mensahe ni Andrei Samaniego.

Inaasahang magsisilbi ang kanilang paglahok bilang inspirasyon sa iba pang kabataang Pilipino na nahihilig sa agham, teknolohiya, inhenyeriya, at matematika (STEM).
